CHANGE APPRECIATED.

The Eagle deeply appreciates the many expressions of approval coming from its subscribers upon the recent change to an afternoon paper; also the many compliments it has received upon the splendid telegraphic news service it has inaugurated. It is the first time in the newspaper history of Bryan when the people have been furnished today's news today. They have had to wait until morning for the outside news of the day before, but now they get it the same day it happens. It will be the constant aim of the Eagle to give its patrons the very best paper possible with the facilities at its command, and just as often as possible a step forward will be taken. To do this will require the support and co-operation of the people which we earnestly solicit.

FINE BOYS AND MENS CLOTHING

The reporter had the pleasure this morning of being shown through the clothing department of W. J. Coulter's up-to-date store. It is located on the second floor, in the east end of the building and the large windows let in a flood of light so the customer can see perfectly the goods before making his selection. Stacked on his shelves were shown one of the swellest lines of boys clothing to be found anywhere. The line embraces the celebrated Knickerbocker suits in the stylish greys, olive greens, stripes and blue serges. They are of the latest cut, side buckles and everything just like mens pants, and best of all there are two pairs of trousers with each suit. They range in price from $2.50 to $7.50. Coulter is still leading in mens stylish $15.00 suits. They are his specials and cannot be matched in material, style and price. He also has a swell line of mens penant pants, cadet waists, and latest colors. They are all that could be desired in stylish clothes. They range in price from $3.50 to $7.50.

Mrs. W. C. Friley departed for her home in Huntsville this afternoon after a pleasant visit to her daughter Mrs. J. Webb Howell.

Free Baptist Church.

Delayed Hat Shipment Arrived.

The delayed shipment of fine Milan straw shapes; flowers and all trimmings for ladies hats, has arrived at the store of W. J. Coulter and when the reporter called this morning he found the proprietor and sales ladies busy unpacking marking and arranging them for the inspection of the ladies. The shipment embraces every kind of shape for ladies hats of the very best material as well as all kinds of flowers, all shades and colors and everything else necessary for trimming. Why not buy a shape to suit yourself, trimming to match and save at least half the cost of your hat? Coulter also has a beautiful line of ready trimmed hats, which are just as good, just as stylish, and cost about one half as much as they ask for them at other places. His trimmed hats range in price from $3.00 to $7.50. The ladies are invited to examine his stock of ready trimmed hats and shapes before buying.
